4X8 23/32 OSB T&G	385	0	385

A lack of urgency was apparent in most framing lumber markets, but diminished availability provided enough support for prices of some items to climb moderately higher or stay at established levels. Demand for structural panels remained mixed, with muted interest generating moderate downward price pressure in certain items, while other panel markets were flat to slightly higher than last week's levels.

Company Updates July 11th, 2025

- East Hardwood Company: Stuff the Bus School Supply Drive
  - We are proud to announce the kickoff of our annual Stuff the Bus event, supporting students in Carteret County Public Schools. All East Hardwood Company locations have begun collecting school supplies to help ensure local children are equipped and confident for the upcoming school year.
  - This initiative reflects our ongoing commitment to community involvement and making a meaningful impact where we live and work. We encourage our team members, customers, and vendor partners to join us in giving back.
    - Let's work together & make a difference — one backpack at a time.
